

ABC'S OF MUSIC

A is for AUDIENCE

It's your turn to listen. What do you hear?

B is for BOW

Sing for someone and don't forget to bow at the end.

C is for COLOR

Draw a picture while listening to music. Does the picture match the song?

D is for DANCE

Turn on some music and dance.

E is for ENTERTAIN

See if you can make someone laugh with a joke.

F is for FOUND SOUND

Find something to shake, scrape or strike.

G is for GUITAR

Play an air guitar to a rock-n-roll song!

H is for HUM

Hum a song. Can someone name that song?

I is for INSTRUMENT

Make one out of items you find at home.

J is for JINGLE

Find something that shakes. What makes the best sound?

K is for KITCHEN BAND

Get out some pots and pans. Let's rock!

L is for LISTEN

Do you hear high sounds or low sounds?

M is for MUSICAL

Find one to watch.

N is for NUTCRACKER

Can you march like a toy soldier?

O is for OPERA

Pick an hour where everyone in your house can only sing. No talking.

P is for PIANO

If you have one, play it. If not tap your fingers and pretend.

Q is for QUIET

Sing a calm lullaby.

R is for RHYTHM

Write some rhythms using ta, ti-ti and rests.

S is for SING

Sing your favorite song.

T is for TALKING VOICE

How many different voices can you make? robot * baby * happy

U is for UNBELIEVABLE

Learn something new about a song, an artist, or a group.

V is for VOLUME

Practice your music dynamics. Go outside to be forte and stay piano while inside.

W is for WRITE

Write new words to the song, "Mary Had A Little Lamb".

X is for XYLOPHONE

If you have one, play it. If not, draw one.

Y is for YODEL

How fast can you say "You Old Lady".

Z is for ZOOM

How fast can you sing and do "Head and Shoulders, Knees and Toes".

The fun doesn't have to stop just because there are no more letters in the alphabet! Whether you're just listening and relaxing or singing at the top of your lungs while dancing around your kitchen- enjoy the MUSIC!