

Lit Log

A reading reflection journal for literature.

FOR:

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for the user to write the title of the literature they are reading.

CREATED BY:

Before I read...

Three facts about the author:

1.

2.

3.

(You can share information found in the book or research using other resources.)

A picture of the author:

Before I read...

What I think about this book :

(Why did you choose it, why are you excited to read the book?)

Share any predictions you have:

Chapter/ Pages Read:

One word to describe this section is:

How I felt about this section:

New words or important words
in the reading

Important characters I met

The most important events in this section are:

Questions or predictions I have:

Focus on Key Ideas and Details: Theme

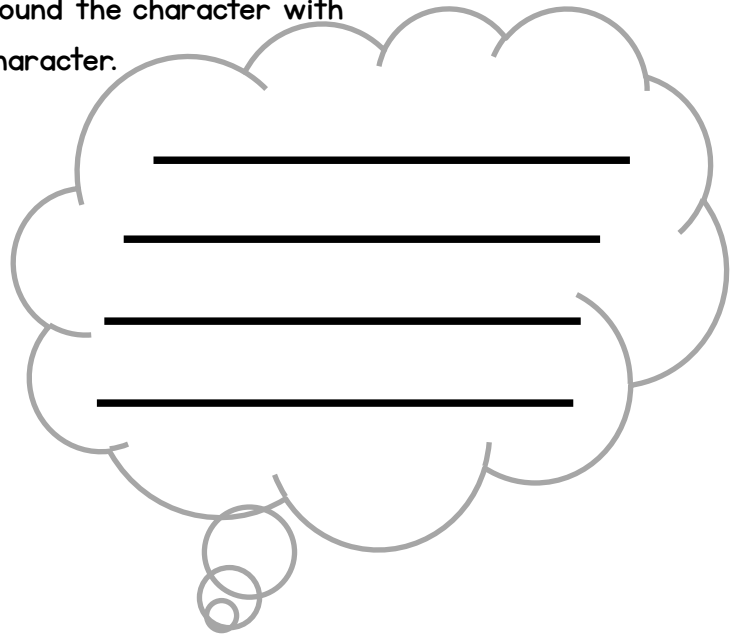

The theme of this book is:

Share events or ideas from your reading that helped you determine the theme.

Focus on Key Ideas and Details: Characters

The main character in this story is:

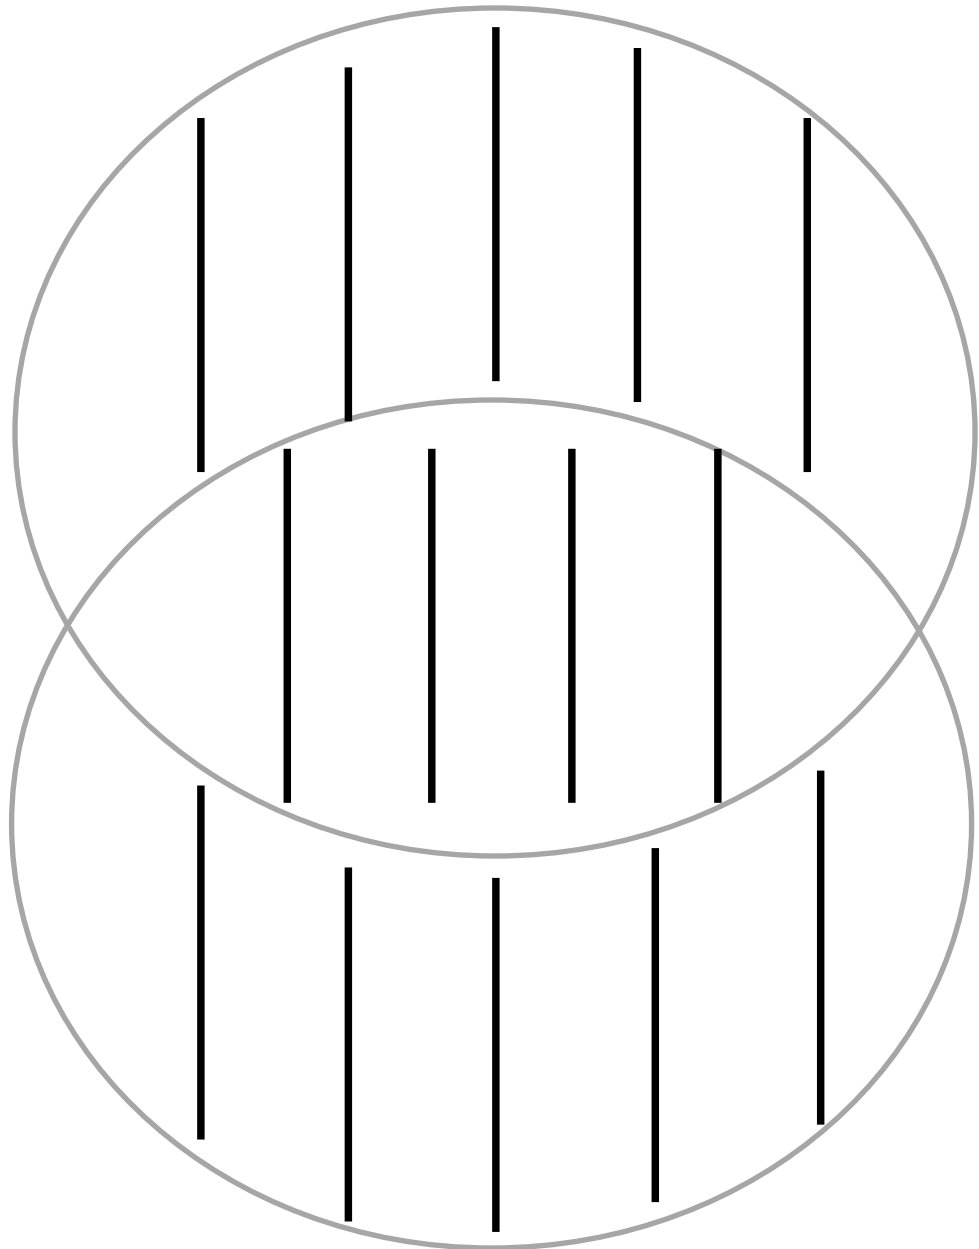

Draw a picture of the main character. Share what the main character thinks and feels in the thought bubble. Surround the character with words that tell about the character.

Focus on Key Ideas and Details: Characters

Two important characters are:

Create a Venn Diagram below to compare and contrast the two characters you chose.

Focus on Key Ideas and Details: Setting

Show two important settings from the book. Use words and pictures.

Making Connections

Good readers make connections as they read. Record two connections you make as you read. Share what happened in the book and the connections you made.
